

Christmas is coming and so is the annual Christmas concert by The Charlotte Chorale.

For the last two years, members of the PGI Car Club have enjoyed attending the December concert of The Charlotte Chorale. This event is offered again this year as an activity choice.

A recent news article in the Sun newspaper stated:

“The Charlotte Chorale was recently recognized as the 2017 Hottest Performing Arts Group by the Harbor Style magazine. The Chorale has won this honor in the last three consecutive years, from 2015 to 2017.

Under the leadership and direction of the artistic director William Dederer, the 2017-18 season starts with a December 9 performance “It’s Christmas”.

The concert is on December 9 at 4:00 p.m. at CPAC (Charlotte Performing Arts Center) at 701 Carmelita Street, Punta Gorda. Tickets are $25 each and may be obtained by contacting Marilyn Counter at counterpointinfl@embargmail.com or by telephone at 941-505-1290.

Season tickets for all three 2017 season concerts are $65. The second concert is a March 3 performance of “Gabrieli to Gershwin. The third concert is a performance of “The Wonder of Water” on April 21. All concerts are at CPAC.

A benefit concert on January 14 will star “Yesterday Beatles Tribute Band” which is endorsed by the Beatles themselves and comes to Punta Gorda from Las Vegas.

For tickets to any of these events, please contact Marilyn Counter at counterpointinfl@embargmail.com or by telephone at 941-505-1290.
